PRESS RELEASE

Date: 01/23/14

Case Number: 14ES00479

Narrative: On January 23, 2014 at approximately 7:30 pm the Essex Police Department was notified of a one vehicle crash on Lamore Road in the Town of Essex. A caller reported that the vehicle had flipped over and was overturned in a creek with a male trapped inside.

Essex Emergency Services were dispatched to the scene and found the Jeep and male partially submerged in a frozen creek. The operator was freed from the wreckage by Essex Fire Department and Essex Rescue Squad. An on scene witness reported seeing the vehicle lose control and returned to the scene to check on the operator. The temperature during the rescue was -5 degrees. The operator of the Jeep was identified as Martin Ryan of Colchester, VT who received non-life threatening injuries. The crash remains under investigation
