PRESS RELEASE

Date: 02-04-2016
Case Number: 16ES00618

Narrative: On 02-03-16 the Essex Police Department investigated a report that a male stopped his vehicle near an 11 year old female walking home from school and tried to convince her to get into the vehicle. This occurred at the intersection of Sand Hill Road and LaSalle Drive in Essex at about 03:30 to 03:39 PM. The juvenile reported that an unknown female approached the area in a dark grey or silver van and spoke to the male who then left the area in his vehicle. His vehicle was described as a fairly new, red, Jeep Wrangler, fully enclosed with black bumpers and an unknown Vermont registration.

The male is described as being in his late teens to early 20s, about six feet tall with an average build, no facial hair or glasses and brown short hair.

The female who approached the scene in the van did not call the Police and investigation has not been able to determine her identity.
